

Milk and cookies are such a treat. Santa must really enjoy his sweets. But he may have to save some to eat later. Your next clue could be found with the milk in the _____.

The Nutcracker Suite sounds so neat, with musical notes, you'll move your feet. Ballet is a form of dance, and your next clue could be found in the kitchen with our cooking_____.

Rudolph's nose shines red and bright, this clue can be found in the bedroom, with something just as bright, this clue can be found by the _____.

All the stockings were hung with care, for soon Saint Nicholas would be there. This next clue can be found with your clothes, where you keep your_____.

Christmas is so merry and bright. Ornaments glisten all through the night. And decorations can be made of all sorts of material. Your next clue is in the kitchen where we keep our tasty breakfast _____.

Oh Christmas tree, Oh Christmas tree! Trees are often decorated so very pretty, with ornaments and candy canes plenty. Your next clue could be found in the bathroom, where the water goes down, in the _____.

Christmas is coming, what will you do? Do you think that maybe you'll get something shiny and new? If you've been good, there's no way to lose. Your next clue could be found with something for your feet because the clue is where we keep your _____.

Giving gifts is so much fun. And Christmas is the time to give to everyone. From toys and games to candy and sweets. Your next clue could be found where you rest, where you_____.