

Circus

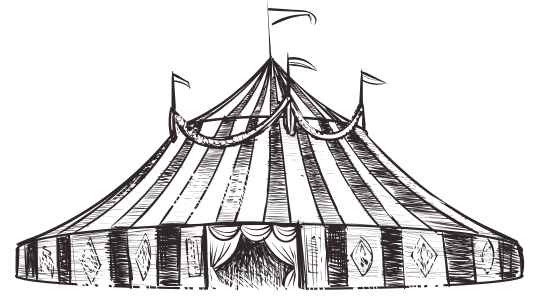

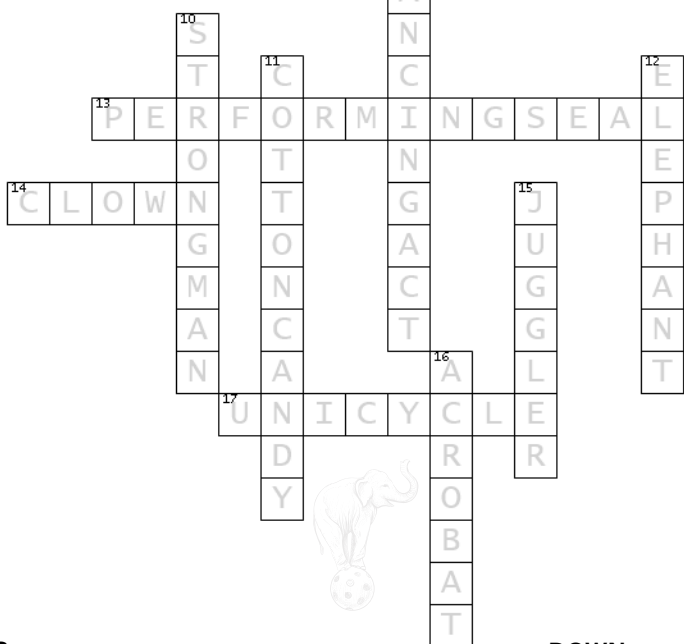

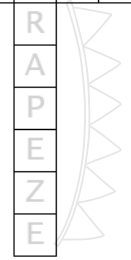

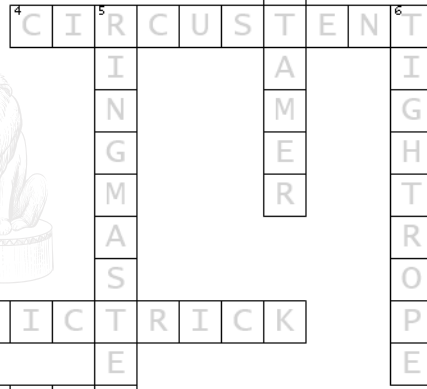

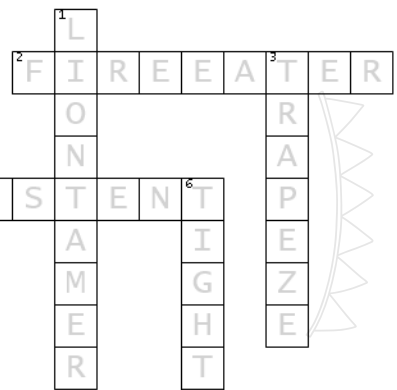

ACROSS

2. A performer who uses techniques to safely put fire in their mouth or perform with flames.
4. The large, colorful structure that houses the performances and audience.
8. An illusion or sleight of hand performed by a magician for entertainment.
9. A performer who wears tall stilts to appear much taller and entertain the audience.
13. A seal trained to do tricks and interact with trainers.
14. A comedic performer known for funny costumes, makeup, and antics.
17. A onewheeled vehicle often ridden by performers in the circus.

DOWN

1. One who interacts with and trains lions.
3. A horizontal bar suspended high above the ground, used by aerial performers.
5. The person who leads and announces the acts in a circus performance.
6. A high wire that acrobats walk across, balancing with skill and precision.
7. A performance where a person maintains their balance while performing on a narrow surface.
10. A performer who lifts heavy weights.
11. A sweet, fluffy treat often sold at circuses and fairs.
12. A large circus animal often featured in parades
15. One who skillfully tosses and catches multiple objects in the air.
16. A performer who executes gymnastic feats.

Circus

ACROSS

2. A performer who uses techniques to safely put fire in their mouth or perform with flames.
4. The large, colorful structure that houses the performances and audience.
8. An illusion or sleight of hand performed by a magician for entertainment.
9. A performer who wears tall stilts to appear much taller and entertain the audience.
13. A seal trained to do tricks and interact with trainers.
14. A comedic performer known for funny costumes, makeup, and antics.
17. A onewheeled vehicle often ridden by performers in the circus.

DOWN

1. One who interacts with and trains lions.
3. A horizontal bar suspended high above the ground, used by aerial performers.
5. The person who leads and announces the acts in a circus performance.
6. A high wire that acrobats walk across, balancing with skill and precision.
7. A performance where a person maintains their balance while performing on a narrow surface.
10. A performer who lifts heavy weights.
11. A sweet, fluffy treat often sold at circuses and fairs.
12. A large circus animal often featured in parades
15. One who skillfully tosses and catches multiple objects in the air.
16. A performer who executes gymnastic feats.