

CLASSROOM BRAIN TEASERS

1. I am something you use to write on but not with, and I hang at the front of the classroom. What am I? Answer: Whiteboard
2. I am the place where you put your books and supplies during class, and you sit in front of me. What am I? Answer: Desk
3. I am filled with letters, numbers, and shapes, and I help you learn to read and count. What am I?
Answer: Alphabet chart
4. I am made of wood or metal, and you use me to draw straight lines. What am I?
Answer: Ruler
5. I am colorful and help you erase mistakes when using a pencil. What am I?
Answer: Eraser
6. I help you stick pieces of paper together, but I am not glue. What am I?
Answer: Stapler
7. I am round and show numbers, but I am not a math book. I tell you when class starts and ends. What am I? Answer: Clock
8. I am full of pages with numbers, and you use me to solve problems in math class. What am I? Answer: Workbook
9. I am filled with crayons, markers, and colored pencils, and I am used to make art projects. What am I?
Answer: Art supplies box
10. I am a collection of books in your classroom, where you can sit and read quietly. What am I? Answer: Classroom library
11. I hang on the wall and show the different countries around the world. What am I?
Answer: Map
12. I am a tool teachers use to make their voices louder so everyone can hear. What am I?
Answer: Microphone
13. I am a small tool that makes your pencil sharp so you can write clearly. What am I?
Answer: Pencil sharpener
14. I am a piece of paper with letters in a row; you learn to write each one carefully. What am I? Answer: Handwriting worksheet
15. I have pages with fun stories and pictures, and you can borrow me from the classroom. What am I? Answer: Storybook