

Double the Magic: Your Elf is Back!

Dear

Surprise! I'm back! Your favorite elf has returned from the North Pole, and I couldn't be more excited to see you both! I missed you so much while I was away and can't wait to join in on your holiday fun again.

This year, I promise to bring even more magic and mischief to our home. I've been watching how kind and loving you've both been, and I can't wait to see the joy you bring to each other this Christmas!

Get ready for some exciting surprises! Each night, I'll find a new hiding spot, and I can't wait to see your faces when you discover me in the morning. Let's make this Christmas one to remember!

Remember, I'm only a whisper away!

Love and holiday cheer,
Your Elf
