

Triple the Joy: Your Elf is Back!

Dear

Surprise! I'm back! 🎉 Your favorite elf has returned from the North Pole, and I couldn't be more excited to see all three of you! I missed you so much while I was away and can't wait to bring magic to our holiday season together.

This year, I promise to bring even more fun and mischief to our home. I've been watching how kind and helpful you've all been to each other, and I'm so proud of you!

Get ready for some exciting surprises! Each night, I'll find a new hiding spot, and I can't wait to see your reactions when you discover me in the morning. Let's make this Christmas full of laughter and unforgettable memories!

Remember, I'm only a whisper away!

Love and holiday cheer,
Your Elf
