

Double the Fun Your Elf is Here!

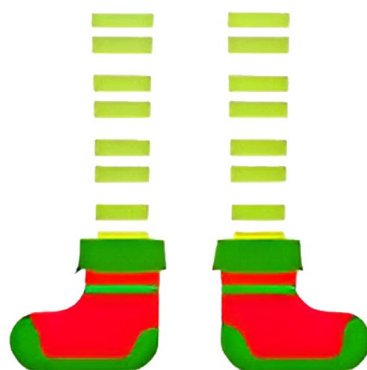

Dear

Guess what?! I've arrived, and I'm here for double the fun with both of you! This holiday season is going to be packed with laughter, kindness, and just a sprinkle of elf magic.

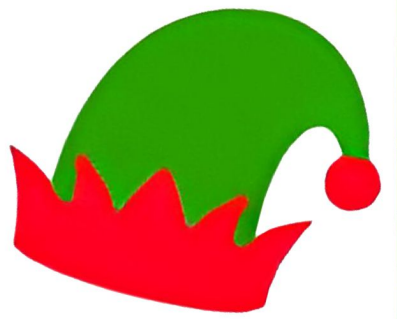

I'll be watching to see all the great things you do together—helping out, sharing, and bringing holiday cheer. And if you spot me in a funny place, it means I've been having a little extra elf fun myself!

Let's make some amazing memories together! Are you both ready for a magical holiday season?

Excited to Begin,
Your Elf

Goodbye for Now Stay Kind and Fun!

Dear

What a fantastic time I've had with both of you! As my holiday visit wraps up, I just want to say thank you for making this season so wonderful. You've both been amazing, and I'm so proud of the kindness and fun you shared with each other.

I'll be bringing all our great memories back to the North Pole, where I'll share every happy moment with Santa and my elf friends. Remember, I'll be watching from afar, so keep up all the good work until I return next year!

Wishing you the happiest holiday season!

With Love,
Your Elf
