

Oops! Your Forgetful Elf Has Arrived!

Dear

Oopsie! I made it here... I think! I'm your elf, and I might be a little bit forgetful. I've probably already misplaced my hat (have you seen it?), but I'm ready for a holiday full of laughs, fun, and maybe a few mixed-up surprises!

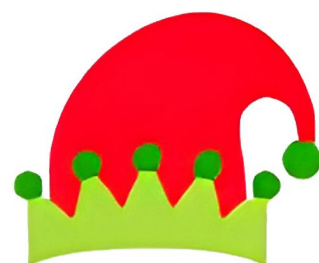

I'll be watching for all the nice things you do and keeping an eye on how you all help each other. But don't be too surprised if you find me in some silly spots—sometimes I forget where I'm supposed to go!

Let's make this holiday one to remember... even if I might forget a few things along the way!

With Love and a Little Confusior
Your Forgetful Elf

Wait, Time to Leave Already?!

Dear

Oh my goodness, is it already time to go? It feels like I just got here! This holiday season was filled with so many wonderful moments, and even if I might have forgotten a few things, I'll never forget how amazing you three were.

I'll be taking all the happy memories back to the North Pole (I'll try not to lose them!), and I'll share our holiday stories with Santa. Thank you for all the kindness, laughs, and fun times—you three made this season so special!

Until next year, keep spreading the holiday cheer. And don't worry, I'll try to remember my way back next time!

With Lots of Elf Hugs,
Your Forgetful Elf

