

It's time for a holiday countdown! I've set up a special calendar filled with surprises for each day. Let's enjoy the excitement of opening a little treat or note together each morning. Remember, it's all about the joy of anticipation and the fun we share. I can't wait to see your smiles as we count down to the big day!

With countdown cheer,
Your Elf