Lila Flutterwing

Biography

A long time ago in Buttercup Meadow, deep in the heart of Fairyland, a little fairy emerged from a glowing cocoon of magic. With her tiny wings not yet grown big enough for flying, Lila Flutterwing would hide among the tall meadow grasses, watching as the colorful butterflies soared high in the sky above her. How she wished she could join them! But even as her wings grew bigger, little Lila was too nervous to take on the endless sky.

One day, a magnificent butterfly tumbled to the ground near Lila. With a torn wing, he worried he could no longer fly. But our little fairy encouraged him, and as she fluttered her own delicate wings to remind him how, something magical happened. They began to rise together, leaving the meadow far below!

Now nicknamed 'Flutter', our Tooth Fairy, with the help of her butterfly friends, creates magic to help children spread their wings with confidence. Her 'Blossoming Wings' spell reminds us that if we can just take that first step, we'll see just how high we can

Whisperwings Cottage

All About Whisperwings Cottage

Whisperwings Cottage, tucked among the flowers and grasses of Buttercup Meadow, is Lila's very own cozy retreat. Despite her growing confidence, our Tooth Fairy still likes to have her own quiet, safe place where she can relax after a busy night.

At Whisperwings, however, friends are always coming and going. Day and night, butterflies dance by, admiring the flowers and sparkling pond. Her fluttery friends are also her helpers: Buttercup Meadow is full of magical blossoms that release a special fairy dust when delicate wings brush against them. When their wings start to feel heavy with the magic dust, her companions head to the special upstairs door in Lila's cottage. Just big enough for butterflies to fit, it leads to an enchanted room where the gathered magic can be stored safely.

When Lila weaves her 'Blossoming Wings' spell from the flowers, she pictures the children she will visit that night. She is growing confident and soaring, just as she did. Even in our comfortable, quiet life, we shouldn't be afraid to step out sometimes. We all need our own safe space, like Whisperwings Cottage, but we should never forget that life is made of these experiences.

Official Tooth Fairy Letter

Dearest

Congratulations on losing your tooth! I am your Tooth Fairy, Lila Flutterwing. Last night while you were dreaming, I gathered your precious gift for safekeeping.

As a little thank you, I've left a small gift in return. My 'Blossoming Wings' magic will now be with you always, ready to gently nudge you with a little extra spark of self-confidence whenever you need it most.

When I was a young fairy and I wanted to try new things, I felt more comfortable hiding away, and I missed out.

My dear, it's normal and okay to feel like this. But one day, I finally learned that I can step out of my comfort zone, and so can you. Sometimes all we need is a little push to take that first, daunting step.

So whenever you feel like a new experience might be a bit too scary, remember the 'Blossoming Wings' magic glowing inside you. Once you take that first step, you'll see - you can do it.

With love and encouragement,

Lila Flutterwing
