Serena Snowbelle

Biography

For hundreds of years, a glittering statue of ice stood alone in a frozen cave, in the far north of Fairyland. The nearby animals never ventured in as it was so dark, with long hanging icicles that looked rather frightening. But one day, a brave snowy owl went exploring. As he flew deeper into the darkness, he glimpsed the statue. With his sharp night vision, he thought it looked very much like a little fairy.

Soon, a group of curious animals returned, bringing torches for light. As they approached the statue, the warmth from the torches began to melt the ice. When they realized that a little fairy was indeed inside, they gathered closely and hugged the statue to give it warmth. As the last icy drops melted away, Serena Snowbelle was brought to life by her friends.

As the Winter Tooth Fairy, Serena, or 'Snowy', loves nothing more than snuggling up with her friends on a cold night. Through her Snowflake Slumber magic, she shares this comfort with children, blessing them with sweet dreams all through the long night.

Frostfall Manor

All About Frostfall Manor

Serena Snowflake lives with her animal companions in a big cozy house called Frostfall Manor. After her friends brought her to life, our Winter Tooth Fairy used her magic to build the house from trees and toadstools growing in Icewind Forest. Now, the snowy owls snooze in their attic, the pine marten family curls up in a cozy bedroom, and the arctic shrews and hares snuggle in their cellar burrows.

The nights are long, cold and dark in northern Fairyland, but Frostfall Manor is filled with joy and warmth. Snowy wants nothing more than to share this with children, especially during the winter nights. So, during the daytime, the forest friends scour the woodland for fairy snowdust, a rare fairy dust found only in the coldest of places. With this secret ingredient, Serena weaves her Snowflake Slumber magic.

When the sky darkens and the first twinkling stars appear, the fairy takes flight. In return for the lost teeth taken in the night, she blesses children with the sweetest of dreams. From afar, Snowy and her friends share their love and comfort through the longest of nights.

Official Tooth Fairy Letter

Dearest

Congratulations on losing your tooth! I'm your Tooth Fairy, Serena Snowbelle, but my friends call me Snowy. I'd like to be your friend, so you can call me Snowy, too.

Did you dream well last night? Although it was dark, I noticed your lovely, contented smile as I collected your precious tooth. (A smile made even more charming by your excellent care and brushing, I might add!)

I'll tell you a secret - you might find traces of fairy dust around your bed this morning. Before I fluttered off with your cherished gift, I sprinkled my 'Snowflake Slumber' magic over your bed. All the way from the frozen north of Fairyland, it's magically infused with the love and warmth that keeps my friends and I cozy on long winter nights.

Each night from now on as you drift off, warm thoughts from Fairyland will be heading your way, like a big hug. We'll make sure that your slumber is snug, and your dreams are always sweet.

With friendship and warmth,

Serena Snowbelle
